Queen Elizabeth Court

CQC Rating

The Care Quality Commission awarded Queen Elizabeth Court a 'Good' rating overall during their latest inspection, with areas noted as good covering all major criteria; Safe, Effective, Caring, Responsive and Well-led.

Assisted Living at RBLI

Queen Elizabeth Court provides domiciliary care for people aged over 55 who have served in the Armed Forces, and their spouses. Designed with independence in mind, each 1 or 2 bedroom apartment has its own front door and complete with a lounge, kitchen, en-suite wet room and emergency call facilities.

An on-site restaurant, beautiful gardens and plenty of organised activities present many opportunities to socialise amongst our vibrant and supportive veteran community on Britain's largest veteran village.

“ I'm much happier now my daughter knows I'm safe... ”

Queen Elizabeth Court

Newly Refurbished

Thanks to overwhelming support from housebuilder Barratt Developments, RBLI's existing assisted living accommodation, Queen Elizabeth Court has recently undergone a major expansion. The accommodation, which provides a home to military veterans and their families over the age of 55, saw its lounge area significantly extended allowing not only for a greater dining experience for its residents but also a space for more engaging social activities which play such a vital role in ensuring the independence of our veterans.

Every resident at Queen Elizabeth Court receives access to daily help with independent living, incorporating 24-hour emergency assistance, and as many or as few services as they require depending on what support they want or need.

RBLI Village

Established in 1919, Royal British Legion Industries is a national charity providing employment, welfare and accommodation support to military veterans, their families and dependants - as well as people with disabilities and those who have been long term unemployed.

Queen Elizabeth Court is located in the heart of the RBLI Village in Aylesford, which provides a home to more than 300 veterans and their families, including homeless veterans through their emergency accommodation.

Today, the Village is a vibrant and bustling community where residents are able to enjoy amenities such as our Base Camp café and the Garden of Honour – a memorial garden offering a peaceful space to remember those who served.

Meet Our Residents

Helping veterans to live dignified and independent lives is key to our ethos at RBLI, and this still applies to those in their later years at Queen Elizabeth Court.

It is so important to provide support to those who have served as we take care of those who gave so much for us. Here are just a few of the incredible characters who are proud to call QEC their home:

Peter

Peter is a Royal Corps of Transport veteran who volunteered for RBLI in 2015. In 2017 RBLI supported him through medical issues and he has lived in QEC ever since.

“ The staff here are wonderful
- without them I don't think
I could've gotten through it... ”

DI

DI was QEC's first resident way back in 2005 and is still going strong with us in her 100th year.

Greenwich House

Assisted Living at RBLI

A 24-apartment assisted living scheme for those who need some care and support, Greenwich House will be opening as part of RBLI's Centenary Village development in July 2022. Greenwich House will provide added on-site domiciliary care for veterans, or their spouses, aged over 55 years of age. Domiciliary care is available on-site at RBLI's Village, with our dedicated team providing assistance to those residents who need it, while also keeping their dignity and independence in mind.

Along with a wide range of accessible homes, the Centenary Village will have a state-of-the-art community centre at its heart as well as beautiful gardens to create a social environment amongst our vibrant and supportive veteran community.

Brand New Construction

Only thanks to our tremendous and generous supporters have we been able build such a ground-breaking new development to support more veterans; further expanding Britain's largest veteran community on RBLI's Village.

As well as having brand-new luxury apartments, all residents at Greenwich House will have access to daily help with independent living, incorporating 24-hour emergency assistance, and as many or as few services as they require depending on what support they want or need.

Greenwich House will play such a vital role in ensuring the independence of our veterans while providing a safe and supportive community to help them along the way.

RBLI Living

Centenary Village

RBLI's Centenary Village development will see our charity support hundreds more military veterans and their families every year for the next one hundred years.

This £22m development will be a thriving, intergenerational community, providing life-changing support to those who need it most with fully-integrated health and social care to help residents overcome their unique daily challenges on a path to greater independence.

Meet the Team

The staff across both of our on-site assisted living facilities come from a wide range of backgrounds and life experiences.

With years of experience between them, our staff are just one of the things that make QEC and soon Greenwich House so special, ensuring that residents are at the heart of everything we do. Together, staff and residents create a unique community and the perfect place to live if you require a little help from time to time.

Lynda Smith Residential Manager

Lynda Smith will be the Residential Manager at Greenwich House – a role she currently holds at Queen Elizabeth Court; RBLs other on-site domiciliary care facility. Having worked at QEC since 2005, Lynda has spent time at every rung of the ladder, beginning as a carer at QEC, before becoming a team leader, and more recently the residential manager. This has given Lynda a fantastic understanding of what the residents want and need.

“ Our aim is to support our residents to live as independently as possible. ”
